Art Unit: 1761

1. The 112 first paragraph rejection of claims 3 and 13 are hereby withdrawn.
2. Claim 21 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 21 is vague and indefinite; it is not clear how claim 21 further limits claim 10 when it recites a product and claim 10 is a process claim. Also, the limitation in claim 21 is already recited in claim 10.

3. Claims 1 and 3-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Biggs et al for the same reason set forth in paragraph 6 of paper no. 5 and for the additional reason set forth below.

The limitation on the amount of flour does not define over the prior art. It is well known recipes for wafer vary; some call for more flour than the other. It would have been obvious to use a more or less flour depending on the texture, the size of the wafer and the taste desired.

Applicant has not shown anything unexpected or critical with regard to the claimed amount of flour. As to the dome shape, it would have been an obvious matter choice to make the product in any shape desired because Biggs et al disclose the product can be made to achieve any desired shape.

4. Applicant's argument is not found to be persuasive for the same reason set forth in paragraph 3 of the previous office action.
